SPRING-SUMMER 2025 COLLECTION

Step into the heart of Miami's sunlit beauty with the Anne Fontaine Spring-Summer 2025 Collection, an exquisite fusion of tradition and contemporary fashion staged against the picturesque backdrops of Vizcaya's Mediterranean Revival splendor, the enchanting beauty of the Ancient Spanish Monastery in Florida, and Renaissance-inspired gardens. This collection, an emblem of heritage and innovation, redefines the narrative of timeless style and modern audacity.

Envision a canvas of sheer elegance, where fabrics float with the grace of palm leaves in the gentle Miami breeze, sculpted into silhouettes that transcend time. This collection is a celebration of soft pastels, contrasting with striking black and white, embodying the serene yet dynamic spirit of a Miami spring. Dresses flow effortlessly, adorned with florals and lace, embodying the essence of the gardens of Vizcaya and the timeless tranquility of the Ancient Spanish Monastery, while ruffles add a touch of whispered opulence, reminiscent of the bygone era of elegance.

The collection paints a dreamy palette inspired by Vizcaya’s lush gardens and the solemn historical beauty of the Spanish Monastery— from the verdant greens of its foliage to the delicate hues of its blooms, accentuated by the depth of the sea's blues. These colors are brought to life on sumptuous fabrics, enriched with iconic details and prints that mirror the elaborate beauty of Vizcaya’s landscape and the serene grace of the monastery's cloisters and gardens.

Sartorially speaking, lace is not just a detail but a declaration of grace and strength, paying homage to the architectural elegance of the estate and the ancient monastery. It combines with sheer elements and meticulous ruffles, juxtaposed against clean lines and modern tailoring that herald a new era of style. The iconic white shirt is reinvented, capturing the essence of chic versatility, making it a cornerstone of the collection.
